

As a New Jersey resident, and enrollee in both the Federal and NJ "Do Not Call" programs, I am distressed and concerned that the FCC is considering weakening our state's protections.

Not only have I enjoyed the peace and quiet of curtailed marketing calls, I think that the FCC should adopt the more stringent measures of NJ, so all of my fellow citizens can get appropriate protection.

Thank you.